For God so loved the earth

Addressing climate change here and in the Pacific: A Uniting Church pre-election forum

This public forum will be led by the Uniting Church's Pasifika congregations along with the wider church and local community.

Invited politicians include: Maurice Payne, Angus Taylor, Chris Bowen, Stuart Ayres and candidates for Lindsay and Macquarie. Together we will express our concerns and raise questions about our government's response to climate change, both in

Australia and the Pacific

Where: Ron Mulock AO Room, Penrith Panthers, 123 Mulgoa Road, Penrith

When: Wednesday April 27th

6.00 pm for pre-forum gathering and refreshments

7.00 pm - 8.30 pm Climate change pre-election forum

In the Pacific, we say that it takes a village to raise our children. In 2022, we see that our villages are disappearing into the sea, and it is our responsibility to raise those villages. I therefore call on us all:

Let us rise, speak out, and take action on the climate injustice that threaten our villages, our lives, and our livelihood

'Oku tau 'ilo ko hono leva'i mo e kaufaki e fānau, ko e fatongia 'o e kolo kotoa. 'I he 2022 ni, kuo tau sio ki he tafia hotau ngaahi kolo 'i he tahi pea ko hotau fatongia ke kaufaki kinautolu. 'Oku ou pole'i ai kitautolu kotoa: Tau tu'u hake, tau kaila, mo tau ta'ofi e fakavalevale 'oku tafia ai hotau ngaahi kolo, ngaahi mo'ui, mo e ngaahi ma'u'anga mo'ui.
